

In the case of AltRaid vs Capri

Written by Orinnari, Member of Parliament and Minister for Citizenship of Southshire.

This case represents a situation between two non-Southshire nationals on sovereign Southshire territory, AltRaid and Capri. The incident in of itself was rather minor however the effect has been pronounced and so the goal of this document is to provide a comprehensive as is possible retelling of the events. For transparency we do not have a replay file and so will instead be using testimony in conjunction with chat logs to paint a relatively clear picture of what happened.

AltRaid entered Southshire at 16:24 UTC via a western line, either the Arran or Nymph line, and arrived at the train station causing the following conversation a few moments later:

[16:25:04] [Huechat] Orinnari: AltRaid, what are you doing in Southshire?
[16:25:17] bgbba: Altraid leave Southshire pls
[16:25:19] cinzar: Now now
[16:25:22] cinzar: Lets not be hasty here
[16:25:48] bgbba: Altraid, why are you in Southshire
[16:25:55] AltRaid: rail
[16:26:09] iOminous: AltRaid is free to come to SS
[16:26:10] iOminous: righth?
[16:26:15] bgbba: Is he?
[16:26:17] Orinnari: No
[16:26:22] cinzar: Well Eddie said no
[16:26:26] cinzar: We never actually agreed to it
[16:26:34] cinzar: Eddie still thinks that he is leader sometimes
[16:26:35] Orinnari: Perhaps, but we haven't countered it, either
[16:26:47] cinzar: Yea I didn't say yes or no
[16:27:04] iOminous: I believe AltRaid is being banned from entering a lot of places
[16:27:33] AltRaid: im out of SS now
[16:27:37] AltRaid: im on my way to bunker

This is telling because it shows a disconnect between what the councillors believe and do, and what is actually true. StrPlatinum banned AltRaid over a similar situation a day or so prior using Casual Powers whereby Parliament wasn't consulted or involved in his decision. I had come out in support of the result, but critical of the means whereas cinzar didn't support the ban at all. And so the question of whether AltRaid was actually banned was brought to the forefront when AltRaid entered Southshire territory.

AltRaid began to loiter around the outside of the train station, firmly violating the ban for which he was aware of, although as you will see later, was unsure of its legitimacy. Baes arrived in Southshire and went into StrPlatinum's pagoda for which he has access. AltRaid followed Baes into the pagoda without permission, although it should be mentioned that the pagoda is not setup to convey that it's private property as it has no doors or other such entrance protections.

[21:42:17] [Huechat] AltRaid: uh
[21:42:20] [Huechat] AltRaid: baes just geared up
[21:42:28] Baes20: food is gone
[21:42:29] Baes20: L
[21:42:35] [Huechat] AltRaid: this might go badly now
[21:42:39] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: asuna don't
[21:42:41] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: wait
[21:42:43] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: are you in SS?
[21:42:44] [Huechat] BustaNuht: please asuna
[21:42:45] [Huechat] AltRaid: not until he engage
[21:42:46] [Huechat] AltRaid: yes
[21:42:56] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: werent you banned from SS?
[21:43:01] [Huechat] AltRaid: just eddie banned me
[21:43:08] [Huechat] AltRaid: cinzar doesnt care
[21:43:12] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: cinz is asuna banned from SS?
[21:43:26] [Huechat] AltRaid: thomas logged in [21:43:32] [Huechat] AltRaid: this smells bad
[21:43:44] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: caaallm, asuna
(presumed logout here)
[21:45:53] [Huechat] Amerikkalainen: altraid is gone
[21:46:09] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: what?
[21:46:18] [Huechat] Amerikkalainen: altraid is not online
[21:46:41] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: weird
[21:47:05] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: asuna says its too laggy
[21:49:14] [Huechat] AltRaid: cinzar
[21:49:24] [Huechat] AltRaid: is there an official statement from southshire that i am not allowed here?

Before I continue, Baes has confirmed that AltRaid was lagging severely and so it's likely that the disconnect at roughly 21:45 was due to lag, or in order to fix the lag, and therefore not strategic. All the same, after AltRaid returned he began to follow Baes around Southshire. At this time Baes was in voice chat with various members of HJE and enacted the "Sovereignty, sovereignty, sovereignty!" meme and mentioned how AltRaid was following him around Southshire. Capri, who was described as itching for PvP jumped at this chance and travelled to Southshire via a tunnel from Nudist Beach to a section of the Southshire to Yoahtl rail. And even though Baes protested his involvement, Capri said he'd come anyway.

When he arrived, AltRaid, who was standing in the entrance to the Arran rail ended up face to face with Capri who had just arrived via the Yoahtl rail. It is then that I believe that AltRaid used the /logout function, as after a few moments awkward staring, Capri began to pot up and then charged at AltRaid who managed to logout just in time. And that's when Capri constructed a stone logbox, although he removed most of the structure about twenty seconds later.

[21:56:54] AltRaid: hello capri
[21:56:59] [Huechat] Quauhtli_Mia: Asuna no fighting
(logout presumably here)

[21:57:21] Capri: Y I K E S
[21:57:23] [!] Smocaine: capri is acting against the HJE in this situation
[21:57:24] Baes20: YIKES
[21:57:36] Baes20: altraid logged
[21:57:37] Baes20: L
[21:57:41] Capri: whata puss
[21:58:00] [!] Smocaine: we have routinely told him to leave

One source claimed that Capri did not charge, while another claims that he did and that if AltRaid didn't successfully logout, there certainly would have been a fight. However, no damage was done, nor any combat technically initiated, but considering that all sides recognise that Capri was potting up, it is safe to assume that a fight was being prepared for. It is unknown whether Capri knew the context of why AltRaid's presence in Southshire was in question or why it would trigger the sovereignty meme, or even if such considerations were important to him as we have no records of what was said in those voice conversations. That said, it appears that Capri is now considered a loose cannon and has since been removed from various namelayer groups.
